The President's Message

I really like to say thank you to Pete Bailey from the Champlain Valley Chapter in Vermont, he put on a very interesting program for us.

Our program chair, Mike Kingsley, has another great program in store for us for the March meeting. We have Jerry Groff, from Carrier Corp., to present a lecture on the history of Carrier Corporation.

March 16, 2012 we have a YEA Event scheduled at the Syracuse War Memorial. The Syracuse Crunch Hockey Team will be playing and we will have a dinner prior to the game for members and their guests. Please get your reservation in to Richard Kimball. Any ASHRAE member is welcome to attend.

Don Middleton, our Membership Chair, is working very hard on recruiting new members to our chapter. Please remember to keep your membership dues current. If you know of anyone who would like to join our chapter please forward them the membership application and information.

Our RP Chair, Mark Yonnick, is doing a great job at getting donations to reach our goal and is gathering information for our Golf Tournament that is scheduled for June.

If I have overlooked anyone or anything, everyone is doing a awesome job and I want to thank you for all your hard work that has been done this year! See you at the next Chapter meeting March 14, 2012 at the Double Tree Hotel at Carrier Circle.

Best Regards,
Steve C. Sill
President

February's Meeting

In Memoriam Walter W. Treichler, Jr.

Central New York Chapter member Walter W. Treichler Jr., 88, of Syracuse, NY, passed away on February 17, 2012. He was born in Harrisburg, PA and graduated from Lehigh University with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, earned a Master of Engineering from Michigan State and an MBA from the University of Chicago, and held a PE license in the state of Illinois. Active in many areas of our industry, he held sales and management positions with York Refrigeration, Hill Refrigeration, Carrier Corporation and Robeson and Woese Consulting Engineers. He served in WWII and in the Korean War and was a Lieutenant Colonel in the Marines.

Walt joined ASHRAE in 1953 and was a Life Member. He was the Membership Promotion Committee Chairman of our chapter from 1987 to 1990. In 1993 and 1994, as a member of our Chapter Historical Committee, he helped develop the historical display material for the ASHRAE Society centennial. Also he served as the Regional Vice Chair of the Educational Activities Committee of ASHRAE Region I from 1991 to 1994.

We extend our sympathy to Carol, his wife of 38 years, and to their family.

Paul Britton
Chapter Historian

Management and Morale

In the office world a major contribution to productivity is morale. While it's hard to please everyone in the office all the time there is a delicate balance that can be found to ensure a healthy level of productivity. Unfortunately, it seems that there is a perception that this balance needs to be instituted solely by management, however in a perfect world it would be a 50/50 split.

The main detriments to office morale can be attributed to negative comments (co-workers / Bosses), office tension, long hours (common in this industry), or being completely overwhelmed. These can cause employees to contemplate how they got into this situation to begin with, how they can get themselves out of the situation, or to complain to others, thus adding to the vicious cycle. This can result in lost worker productivity throughout the workday.

What management can do

- ◆ Coffee and donuts: It's surprising how just bringing in food for the office can turn it around for a brief time.
- ◆ Company Events: Whether it be a barbeque, picnic, or basketball events like these semi regularly can keep spirits up.
- ◆ Kind Words: A few words of praise can go a long way.
- ◆ Compensation: This is a tough economy, but a little compensation can go a long way.
- ◆ No Favorites: Either everyone has to follow the rules or nobody does.

What the individual can do

- ◆ Put on Blinders: Don't worry about what anybody else is doing or getting away with.
- ◆ Don't Dwell: There are good days and bad days, don't spend your entire day complaining about it, this causes you to relive it over and over.

The above can help as long as all parties realize that its not just the others problem. Meeting halfway makes all the difference.

YEA is Starting!

The Central New York Chapter is starting its very own Young Engineers in ASHRAE (YEA) organization. We will be distributing materials regarding YEA at our upcoming meeting on November 9th. Here are some answers to common questions about YEA:

Who belongs to YEA?

Anyone who is an ASHRAE member under the age of 35, including students. If you're under 35 and an ASHRAE member, congratulations! You are a YEA member.

What can YEA and the CNY Chapter do for me?

1. Free attendance at local ASHRAE events – the ASHRAE CNY chapter will cover the cost of your first chapter meeting
2. Technical Programs
3. Mentors
4. Leadership Opportunities
5. Networking
6. Fun

Where are YEA meetings held?

Locally, we're planning on combining YEA Meetings with Chapter Meetings. Eventually, we plan on scheduling more separate YEA events apart from the local chapter. Examples from other chapters include happy hours, mini-golf, plant tours, and educational seminars.

Nationally, there are two annual YEA leadership weekends (YLW). The most recent YLW was 9/30/2011-10/2/2011 in Atlanta. The next leadership weekend is scheduled for Spring 2011 in San Diego. YEA members also have the opportunity to shadow senior ASHRAE Officers at the semi-annual ASHRAE society meetings through ASHRAE "Leadership U".

When are YEA meetings held?

For now, YEA meetings will be local chapter meetings. Meetings are held on the 2nd Wednesday of every month at the Double Tree at Carrier Circle. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, November 9.

Why bother participating in YEA?

YEA is a great way to advance your career and meet other young engineers. The society won't be successful without your involvement. Participation in ASHRAE provides a spectacular opportunity to build your career in HVAC/R. Consider these benefits of participation in ASHRAE:

- Technology Acquisition
- Professional Growth
- Networking
- Career Advancement

For more information about YEA, contact Richard Kimball at:
rkimball@bergmannpc.com or by phone at 315-422-5200 x765.

Question: SYBUNT... what does it mean?

Answer:

Some Years But Unfortunately Not This (Year)

SYBUNT donors are those companies or individuals who have made donations to their Chapter's Research & Promotion effort in the past, but have not renewed their support in recent years. When asked, we sometimes find these valued donors feel disconnected from their local Chapter or with what's going on with ASHRAE at the National level.

If this describes you or your company, please consider joining us for an upcoming meeting as the CNY ASHRAE Chapter works diligently to schedule dynamic speakers addressing today's most relevant HVACR topics. In addition, several programs throughout the year include tours of local Engineering firms, Universities and Manufacturers aimed at offering a more hands-on experience.

Our message is simple,.. Thank you for your past support to ASHRAE Research & Promotion and by participating at the local level, we are confident you will once again consider donating towards this valuable cause.

Please feel free to contact me at mark.yonnick@fulton.com with any questions or to schedule a donation.
